MISS EVA FOWLER, INVALID FOR MANY YEARS, DIES

Strong Christian Character Passes—Had Been Bed-fast for Twenty-Seven Years.

Miss Eva Fowler died at the home of her sister, Mrs. W. A. Tolle, in East Second street, Thursday evening at 10:30 o'clock.

Miss Fowler was a native Maysvillian and had been an invalid since her girlhood. For the past twenty-seven years she had been bed-fast and during all of that time had made her home with her sister, Mrs. Tolle, who had devoted the greater part of her life to the loving care of her sister.

Miss Fowler was a consistent member of the First Baptist church and a Christian character whose patient sufferings and religious zeal through the years had strengthened the faith of many who knew her life.

Two sister survive her, Mrs. Tolle and Mrs. Mary Easton. She is also survived by five nephews, whose course in life she had greatly helped to shape, Rev. H. H. Tolle, Cynthia, H. W. Tolle, Cincinnati; C. H. Tolle, Atlanta; H. P. Tolle, Detroit, and Frank S. Tolle, Maysville.

Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

BODY OF MISSING BLIND MAN FOUND IN ADAMS COUNTY

Blind Man Disappeared Last June in Adams County—Skeleton and Part of Pack Found Near Peebles.

Peebles, Ohio, Nov. 30. — The body of William Cline, who had been missing since the first of June, was found Sunday afternoon in what is known as the Purtoe Hollow, near Jay Bird. Some time the first week in June, Mr. Cline called at the store of Charley Walls at Jay Bird and after eating dinner at the Walls home, started for the distant up a hollow and over a hill.

Being stone blind he was helped along the way by different ones and the last that was seen of him was when he was taken across a footlog by two boys, who started him in the right direction to the Setty home. A few days later Mr. Walls inquired of Mr. Setty if Mr. Cline had been to his home and after being informed that he had not, then Mr. Walls concluded that he had left the path and finally reached a familiar neighborhood. Nothing more was thought about it until Sunday afternoon, when Mr. Walls' son Elzie, who had been hunting found two canes which he identified as belonging to Mr. Cline. On Sunday morning Mr. Walls and a number of neighbors started a search.

After locating the canes they continued the search and had concluded to give up when Wilburn Yonkers found the little hand grip in which he carried pencils, shoestrings, washing powders, that he had for sale. A short distance from the grip the skeleton was found.

JUDGE COCHRAN TO HEAR BANK INJUNCTIONS HERE

Restraining Orders Issued at London Wednesday—Injunction Asked By Banks To Be Heard Here.

Lexington, Ky., Dec. 1. — Federal Judge A. M. J. Cochran issued two orders Wednesday temporarily restraining Sheriff Powell Bosworth from collecting taxes from the Third National Bank and the First and City National Bank before a hearing upon the temporary injunctions asked by the banks is held next Thursday, according to James B. Bush, a member of the law firm of Hunt, Norrhatt and Bush, filers of the petitions for the banks, who carried the petitions to London Wednesday for Judge Cochran's signature. Mr. Bush, who returned yesterday morning, stated that Judge Cochran would hold the hearing upon the injunctions at Maysville.

Circuit Judge Richard C. Stoll issued orders Tuesday restraining Sheriff Bosworth from collecting taxes from the Second National Bank, the Bank of Commerce, the Guaranty Bank and Trust Company, and the Fayette National Bank. These suits, for amounts under $5,000, could legally be filed in the United States court, and the attorneys for the plaintiffs chose to file them there.

OCCUPANTS OF BURNINGHOUSE HAVE A NARROW ESCAPE

Frame Dwelling House on the M. F. Coughlin Farm Burns to Ground—Family of William Hiatt Lose Practically All.

A frame dwelling house on the farm of the late M. F. Coughlin located just outside the city limits on the Hill City pike was entirely destroyed by fire at about 2 o'clock Friday morning and the occupants narrowly escaped from the burning building losing practically all of their household effects.

The residence was occupied by William Hiatt and family. One of Mr. Hiatt's sons was awakened by the crackling of burning timbers. He awakened his father and they found the entire roof of the building afire. The house, being frame and old and dry, burned very rapidly and by the time the other members of the family were awakened the roof was crumbling under the rapidly spreading flames. Several members of the household ran clear of the house only partly clad and their clothing was consumed. Some of the bed clothing and a stove were carried out of the burning house but all the other furniture in the house was destroyed.

The origin of the fire is a mystery as there was no fire in the building over night. It is thought that sparks from the kitchen stove might have caught in the shingle roof and smoldered for hours before breaking into flame.

Mr. Hiatt and his family are left in a very destitute condition.

Mrs. Sidney Keith, of Lexington, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Keith, of Forest avenue.

TWO CHARGE EACH OTHER WITH MURDER

New York Chauffeur Charges Garage Man Killed His Wife—Both Being Held.

New York, Dec. 1.—Abraham Becker chauffeur, and Rouben Norkin, garage keeper, accused each other today of playing Becker's wife.

The woman's body was found buried in a vacant lot near Norkin's garage in the Bronx Wednesday. She had been missing seven months.

Becker, after denying the identity of the body, suddenly admitted it was that of his wife, and accused Norkin of slaying her to "satisfy" an auto repair bill.

Norkin admitted furnishing the shovel to bury Mrs. Becker, but denied any part in the woman's death. He asserted Becker several months earlier had voiced threats to kill her.

Becker, accusing Norkin, said he did not tell of the slaying because he was "afraid of the garage man."

"I thought he would kill me if I did not keep still. I don't know what good it would have done for me to talk," wailed Becker.

Norkin said at the time he gave Becker the shovel he did not know what it was wanted for, but that Becker later told him he had buried his wife "near my shop."

"I didn't do anything about it," he admitted.

RIOTS IN CAPITAL OF MEXICO OVER RATIONS OF WATER

Seventeen Killed and Many Wounded in Skirmish at Mexican Capital Last Night—Municipal Building Seized.

A Mexico City dispatch says: Federal troops guard a badly battered municipal building today, while the city county the casualties of a pitched battle between the police and a mob which attempted to storm the building last night. The dead number 17, while 18 are seriously injured and 33 slightly hurt.

The main plaza before the municipal building is a shambles of broken glass, timbers and stone—evidence of the anger of the mob which forced its way into the building half an hour after the police rifles had taken their toll.

The trouble, which continued more than six hours, started when a crowd marched to the city hall to protest against the aldermen who are held responsible for conditions leading to the water famine. The demonstration was intended by the labor unions, that organized it, as a peaceful protest, and several hundred persons paraded the downtown streets, proceeding to the hall to voice their adverse sentiments. When the building was reached the crowd numbered more than 2,000 persons.

As a Business Grows It Becomes One of Two Things, a Service or a Menace

When this business was small all required of it—and all expected of it—was a competitive dollar's worth for a dollar. Because of its ideals lead it in the better way, it persisted not only in giving a very full dollar's worth, but in being sure that the goods were well worth the buying.

And so this business grew—grew by your favor—and it became strong enough to increase its serviceableness to the public—and now the law of responsibility makes our utmost best service our plain duty.

When automobiles were first introduced we were satisfied to crank same and run the risk of breaking an arm. Now we place our foot on a button and off we go and we hurt nobody.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

JESUS THE WORLD'S SAVIOR.

Jesus Sending Out Missionaries; Luke 9:1-10:21.

(By C. H. RAYL.)

Sometimes the twelve sent out were designated "disciples" but more commonly in the New Testament they are called "The Twelve." Jesus gave them the name of "Apostles." The word is significant. It indicates the desire and purpose of the Master to spread the knowledge of His Gospel. An apostle is one sent out upon a mission. And the special mission of the twelve was to tell the "Good News" of the Kingdom of God to the world. From this viewpoint they were missionaries in the strictest sense of the term.

We have only to study the lives of the twelve Apostles to find what crude material Jesus can use. They were mostly uncultured, illiterate men, often faint-hearted, irresolute and cowardly, but higher honors than any of earth were given them when Jesus sent them forth as His Ambassadors. When an ambassador is appointed to any land, he is given special instructions before he departs on his mission. Sometimes these instructions are secret, but Jesus' instructions to the twelve extend beyond their special mission and even that of the early church, for it sets forth the mission of Christ's church in the world and of His followers throughout all ages.

Jesus sent these beginners to the home field which was the easiest field of labor and that most apt to be overlooked. The day was soon to come when they would be free to go to Samaria, but this early in their ministry they had so little of the spirit of their Master that one would have called fire from Heaven upon unbelievers, and it required a heavenly vision to lift prejudice and teach another the way of salvation.

A young girl once longed to be a foreign missionary. One day while getting a drink of cold water for her grandmother, she broke the handle of the pitcher at the pump and betrayed such irritation as to speak unkindly to the aged saint, when a voice seemed to say to her, "My child, if you have not learned to give a cup of cold water to one of my little ones, how could you give the bread of life to my enemies?"

It is a wonderful thing to be an ambassador for Christ. To tell the story of Christ. We may not all be eloquent but all should be able to tell the simple story of the cross. And how needed it is in this time of false doctrine.

"Stir me, Oh! stir me Lord—I care not how,
But stir my heart in passion for the world;
Stir me to give, to go, but most of all to pray.
Stir, till the blood-red banner be unfurled
O'er lands that still in heathen darkness lie,
O'er deserts where no cross is lifted high."

As the twelve performed the task assigned them to the extent of their ability and of their opportunities, Jesus found it necessary to increase the number of his missionaries to seventy. Other territories were now included and He declared that the harvest was ripe. Looking down through the centuries and seeing the constant need of remembering the "Other sheep" which are not of this fold and emphasizing the greatness of the harvest He commanded them and is commanding us as well to pray. "Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that He would send forth laborers into His harvest." He was asking them to pray for the vast world-field whose soul-harvest must be gathered in, and for gospel harvesters to be raised up, called and trained for missionary work.

"Stir me, Oh! stir me Lord, till all my heart
Is filled with strong compassion for these souls,
Till Thy constraining love reach to the poles
Far North and South, in burning, deep desire
Till East and West are caught in love's great fire."

"Stir me, Oh! stir me, Lord till prayer
Is pain.
Till prayer is joy—till prayer turns
Into praise
Stir me till heart and will and mind,
Yes, all
Is wholly Thine to use through all the days."

"Even the very dust of your city,
Which cleaveth on us do we wipe off
Against you." This was the condemnation to the city that rejected its chance.

There is a great Christian principle running through all Scripture and all life, which declares that exalted privilege neglected brings added condemnation. As far back as in the song of Deborah and Barak this principle is recorded in history. It is this which Jesus sets forth in this lesson "To whomsoever much is given, of him much is required."

"If you cannot cross the ocean,
And the heathen lands explore
You can find the heathen nearer,
You can find them at your door;
If you cannot give your thousands,
You can give the widow's mite;
And the least you give for Jesus
Will be precious in His sight."

COMMENT

Just as soon as we get our county taxes paid along comes the announcement that automobile licenses are due and must be paid before the first of January. Life is one continual paying of taxes of one sort or another.

After two weeks investigation the grand jury in the Hall-Mills couple murder has been unable to find an indictment. Most of the newspaper readers have tried this case and returned a verdict long ago.

Wonder if Couzens will create as much of a stir in the United States Senate upon his arrival there as he did when he was first made Mayor of Detroit. Senator-elect Couzens is at least an expert on municipal ownership. This may be of some value to the Senate.

The first day of the Christmas month is here. Already the local stores and shops have taken on a holiday appearance and Christmas shopping will start in earnest now. Don't put it off but take the wise advice and do your Christmas shopping early this year.

Tobacco growers are beginning to get just a little impatient to hear from Lexington some announcement of another distribution of cash before Christmas. Some of the retailers are also keeping their ear to the ground to hear such an announcement. It would be mighty good news to all of us.

The day after Thanksgiving is not always the most pleasant day in the year. After a big dinner of everything good to eat most people feel much like fighting. It may be alright to enjoy a big dinner but to eat so much that it puts a grouch on you for two or three days is wrong, all wrong.

The Flemingsburg High School football club has closed the season with a splendid record. This is Flemingsburg's first year for football and the squad won the great majority of their games, some of which were with very strong teams. This football squad has brought more favorable publicity to Flemingsburg than any sport has ever given that town. We congratulate our neighbors upon their successful team.

Bowling is to be revived in Maysville. A score of years ago this was Maysville's chief sport and there were several bowling teams in this city that were hard to beat. Maysville triumphed over some of the best bowling teams in Lexington and Cincinnati. There has been little interest in the sport here for years.

Our Dairy Poem

MOCKERY

When the soul has gone out of the smiling,
And the heart has gone out of the song,
When men turn their thoughts to reviling
The world they have helped to go wrong,
Then folly, with impudent seeming,
Demands that his name be adored.
His cap is a crown in his dreaming,
And his bauble has changed to a sword.

When Mirth is compelled to dissemble,
And Happiness limps on its way,
And Music must furtively tremble
Lest evil should luck in the lay,
Then folly his mood is beguiling
With revenges he hoped for so long;
And there's only a sneer in the smile
ing,
And only a threat in the song.

HELPTHE OLD FOLKS

A Helping Hand Extended to Many Old People in Maysville. The infirmities of age are many. Most old people have a bad back. The kidneys are often weak. Or worn out with years of work. Backache means days of misery. Urinary troubles, nights of unrest. Doan's Kidney Pills have helped to make life easier for many.

The yare doing so for old and young. Maysville people are learning this. Read the following local endorsement: Charles Kennan, retired farmer, 81 Wood street, Maysville, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills several different times within the last few years and never had them fail to do me good. My kidneys were in bad shape. The secretions were unnatural and burned terribly in passage. My back kept me in misery during the time the attack lasted and I was feeling generally run down. I went to Wood & Son's Drug Store and got a couple of boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills and began using them. Doan's reached my case at once and cured me up in god shape. I have always relied upon Doan's since and a few now and then regulate my kidneys and keep them in good condition. Free 60 cents, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Kennan had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y."

MANY KENTUCKY BEEKEEPERS MAKE A LIVING FROM HONEY.

Lexington, Ky. — Although beekeeping usually is taken on as a sideline, there are beekeepers in many parts of Kentucky who make a good living by giving all their time to the production of honey, according to a revised circular entitled, "Elements of Beekeeping," which has just come off the press at the College of Agriculture and which is being sent out free to interested persons. Any locality where farming, gardening or fruit growing is followed is adapted to the keeping of bees. The mountain sections of the state are good places for beekeeping because of the wild plants and the native forest trees, the circular points out.

It is best to start with a few colonies and make the bees pay for themselves an d after that buy more equipment and gradually make the apary bigger. A few colonies managed right can be made a paying investment, considering the amount of money and time expended on them.

Fall feeding and wintering of bees are given special attention in the new circular which points out that lack of enough food, no winter protection and too few young bees to go through the winter are the three big causes for losses in beekeeping during that season. In sections where winters are long and severe, as is sometimes the case in Kentucky, and when brood rearing has been suspended for several months, the colony should go into the winter with plenty of stores and some kind of protection from the cold.

Equipment necessary for the beginner in beekeeping, the kind of bees to get, a suggested outfit for beginners, the colony itself, how to get bees, transferring them to movable-frame hives, the importance of good queens, the location of the apary surplus honey and the general management of bees are dealt with in detail in the new circular. Bee diseases, sources of honey and the uses and care of honey also are given attention in the new publication. It also contains a number of pictures and drawings designed to be of practical help to the beekeeper. The new circular may be obtained free by writing the Experiment Station, Lexington, and asking for Circular No. 69.

DECEMBER IS BEST MONTH TO STUDY FARM BUSINESS.

Lexington, Ky. — December is the best time of the year for the farmer to study his business, according to W. D. Nichols, head of the farm economics department of the College of Agriculture. At that time the main field work is over, the yield, quality and market price of the farm products are known and the long nights and weather at this season of the year as such that there is limited time for field work. This gives the farmer a good chance to look back over the year to make an invoice of mistakes and successes and plan ahead for the coming year. The lead pencil used during the winter months to study the farm business and make plans for the new year is the greatest labor saving and profit insuring implement on the farm, Mr.

Nichols says.

Nichols says.

"Farm profits in 1923 will be determined to a large extent by the care and thought that is used in planning and scheduling the farm work for the year. Successful farmers plan their work at this time of the year and then see to it that their plans work out in the next twelve months. This helps them keep ahead of their work and that is a big item in making the farm pay."

"More farmers each year are adopting the plan of keeping a record through the year of farm work done, weather conditions, dates of killing frost, timely rains, extreme droughts, market variations and other timely data. Many other farmers add to these records by using a simple system to record the receipts and expenditures of the farm business. Such records used in connection with the inventories that more and more farmers are making each year help the farmer make a complete study of the farm business.

COULD NOT TURN IN BED

Operation Avoided by Taking
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Dayton, Ohio.—"I had such pains that I had to be turned in bed every time I wished to move. They said an operation was necessary. My mother would keep saying: 'Why don't you take Pinkham's, Henrietta?' and I'd say, 'Oh, mamma, it won't help me. I've tried too much.' One day she said, 'Let me get you one bottle of each kind. You won't be out very much if I don't know if you will believe me or not, but I only took two bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and one of Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Medicine when I began to get relief and I am regular ever since without a pain or a headache.'

"When I lie down I can get up without help and without pain. I can't begin to tell you how I feel and look. I have begun to gain in weight and look more like I ought to. I think every day of ways I have been helped. Any one who does not believe me can write to me and I will tell them what shape I was in. I am ready to do anything I can to help your medicine."—Mrs. HENRIETTA MILLER, 137 Sprague St., Dayton, Ohio.

If you have any doubt write to Mrs. Miller and get her story direct.

and charging the costs of labor, materials and other items to be various crops and stock that they were used in connection with. This helps them determine with reasonable accuracy the relative profit of the different farm enterprises. Such calculations need not be exact. On the other hand estimates can be made roughly and with enough accuracy to be practical. Many successful farmers also are finding that cost account records, showing what it costs to produce crops and other farm products, are helpful in making a study of the farm business."

COMPROMISE REACHER IN THE BASSETT WILL CASE.

Cynthiana.—A compromise of $5,000 cash for the Memorial hospital has brought settlement of the suit to break the will of Mrs. Sarah Bassett, by which the institution was the residuary legatee, with a trust provision and her son and daughter were given the income from extensive property holdings, but were restrained from disposing of any part of the estate.

RECKLESS DRIVER GETS SIXTY-DAY SENTENCE.

San Francisco, Calif., Nov. 30.—What is said to be the most severe sentence ever given in a Police Court here for reckless driving has been handed out by Judge S. J. McAtee in sentencing Robert F. Boyle, an electrical dealer, to sixty days in the county jail.

"I am determined to stop reckless driving in San Francisco," said Judge McAtee. "There have been too many deaths and too many injuries recently."

FORMER JUDGE PARDONED.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 30.—E. C. Kimbrell, former police judge of Salt Lick, in Bath county, serving a five-year sentence in the penitentiary in connection with the death of Edward Bailey, also of Salt Lick, who was shot when in a fight at that place, was pardoned today by Governor Edwin P. Morrow.

Mr. Bell Hall Strode spent Thanksgiving Day with his father, Mr. W. Hall Strode, who is a patient at the Good Samaritan Hospital in Lexington.

TO HOLDERS OF 1918 WAR SAVINGS STAMPS.

The forms and necessary receipts to be used in cashing and exchanging both registered and unregistered war savings stamps of 1918 issue have been received at the postoffice. In cashing and exchanging these certificates the Postal Service faces a task that will call for the most earnest efforts of all postmasters and employees concerned and it is the request of the department that you present your stamps for payment prior to January 1, 1923. By complying with this request you will not only receive your check on or about January 1, 1923, but also distribute the work of the postal employees over a period of one month thereby preventing confusion and delay. If you wish to re-invest the amount of your stamps in Treasury Savings Certificates bearing four per cent, compound interest and exempt from taxation make application at the postoffice.

WOMAN MURDERER ATTEMPTS SUICIDE IN CARLISLE JAIL.

Woman Who Had Only Recently Been Released From State Asylum Slays Her Sister-in-Law in Nicholas County—Attempts Own Life.

Carlisle, Ky., Nov. 30.—Mrs. Clarence Abner, 40 years old, who was arrested, late Wednesday afternoon on the charge of killing her sister-in-law, Mrs. Thelma Swarts, 18 years old, at the Swarts farm near Licking, ten miles from here, attempted suicide in the county jail here shortly before 10 o'clock Wednesday night. The woman is in a serious condition in the jail here.

Mrs. Abner was found unconscious in her cell by Jailer Russell Lawrence. She had taken off her apron, tied it around her neck and to the bars of the window in her cell, in an attempt to strangle herself.

The killing, the first to occur in Nicholas county in six years and the first time in the history of the county that one woman murdered another, occurred Wednesday afternoon when Ivey Herndon and Clinton Dayton, hunters sitting on the banks of the Buchanan creek in sight of the Swarts home, say they heard shots and the screams of a woman.

Then two women appeared suddenly from a clump of bushes near the house the men said, one pursuing the other. The women ran into a field, circling it twice, when another shot was fired, the men say.

The woman in front dropped to the ground, the men said, and her pursuer ran to the rear of the house. The men carried the unconscious woman into the house where she died within a few minutes.

Three bullets entered the body of Mrs. Swarts, all striking within two inches of the heart.

Mrs. Abner, running around the house, jumped into the well which contained but three feet of water. The men rescued her from the well.

The shooting is believed, it is said today, to have been brought on by a family quarrel between the two women. The dead woman is a sister of Mrs. Abner's husband.

At a recent term of the Nicholas circuit court, Mrs. Swarts was indicted for sending an anonymous letter to Mrs. Abner. The contents of the letter have not been divulged.

Mrs. Swarts was in the Eastern state hospital at Lexington for several months, it was said today. She was discharged Friday from that institution as cured and returned to her home.

The two families live together on the farm and there had been trouble between them prior to Mrs. Swarts' commitment. It was claimed today.

Neither Swarts nor Abner, the two husbands, was at home at the time of the murder.

Mrs. Swarts has no children. Mrs. Abner has one child, a small boy.

When brought to the county jail here by a party of county officials composed of Sheriff James Gaunce, Deputy Sheriff L. C. Barton and Coroner H. R. Ewing, Mrs. Abner would make no statement as to the cause of the shooting.

Coroner H. R. Ewing will hold an inquest Friday morning he announced today.
